Programme Report

On March 8 th, 2021, the Department of English organized a Lecture Series on Feminist Theories, held at Rajagiri Viswajyothi College of Arts and Applied Sciences, Vengoor, Perumbavoor. This lecture aimed to provide BA English students from Rajagiri Viswajyothi College and Christ College of Science and Management, Malur, with an in-depth understanding of feminist theories.

The session, coordinated by Assistant Professor Febi Abraham, lasted for one hour and was designed to explore the historical development of feminist thought, key concepts, and major theorists. It also sought to examine the application of these theories to contemporary social issues and foster critical discussion on their impact and ongoing debates. The program successfully enhanced students' perspectives on how intersectionality and diverse identities influence feminist theory and social dynamics. Additionally, it provided access to valuable resources for further study, encouraging students to continue exploring feminist theories and their practical applications beyond the lecture series.

Duration	30 Days
Beneficiaries	Jerin Thomas
Venue or Platform	Poly Queen Foams PVT. LTD, Ernakulam.
Organized Dept	B.com
Coordinator	Sreekala MM
Outcome of the Programme	Equipped intern on enhanced understanding of the market dynamics.

From February 15, 2021, to March 12, 2021, Rajagiri Viswajyothi College of Arts and Applied Sciences offered a valuable internship opportunity for Jerin Thomas at Poly Queen Foams PVT. LTD in Ernakulam. This 30-day program focused on the trading process, specifically how raw materials are bought and sold to create finished goods. Organized by the B. Com department and coordinated by Sreekala MM, the internship aimed to provide Jerin with practical experience and a better understanding of how the trading market works.

The internship was a great success in helping Jerin gain a clearer view of market dynamics. By working hands-on with the team at Poly Queen Foams, he learned about market trends, trading strategies, and the challenges of moving from raw materials to finished products. This real-world experience not only enhanced his knowledge but also provided him with valuable skills for his future career in trading. Overall, the program was a key step in his professional development and aligned well with the college's educational goals.
