Annual Report- 2022-23 Academic Year

The new academic year at Rajagiri Viswajyothi College of Arts & Applied Sciences commenced on 1st June 2022. The institution currently has 249 students across three departments, including 90 first year students

After navigating the challenges posed by the pandemic, the college successfully continued its academic journey. The academic year began with a 15-day internal FDP 'Vidyut 2K22', laying the foundation for the academic activities ahead. The programme featured sessions on academic planning, calendar preparation, and strategies to achieve the college's Vision and Mission. Prominent resource persons, included Fr. Jose Kuriyedath, former Provincial of the Sacred Heart Province, and Fr. Benny Nalkara, Provincial, who conducted sessions on CMI vision of Education for the faculty.

It was a matter of great pride for Rajagiri Viswajyothi to host a wide range of programmes and intercollegiate fests throughout the year.

Infrastructure

Rajagiri Viswajyothi College of Arts and Applied Sciences (RVCAS) offers well-organized parking facilities, including designated spaces for student vehicles and accessible parking for individuals with disabilities. The parking area is equipped with security measures like surveillance cameras and ensures smooth traffic flow, reducing congestion during peak hours. This initiative reflects the college's commitment to providing a safe, convenient, and inclusive campus environment for all students and staff.

"ThinkTank," a dynamic space dedicated to fostering creativity, collaboration, and innovation among students. Designed as a hub for brainstorming, planning, and taking action, the ThinkTank provides a venue where students can come together to share ideas, develop projects, and engage in intellectual discussions.

In addition to academic pursuits, the ThinkTank offers an environment for recreation, allowing students to unwind and recharge between their sessions of critical thinking and problem-solving. Equipped with modern facilities and designed for flexibility, this space encourages both individual reflection and group collaboration.

Rajagiri Viswajyothi College of Arts and Applied Sciences (RVCAS) has introduced a well-equipped Common Staff Room to foster collaboration and provide a comfortable workspace for faculty members. This shared space is designed to facilitate interdepartmental communication, encouraging the exchange of ideas and enhancing teamwork among the teaching staff.

The Common Staff Room is furnished with modern amenities, including workstations, seating areas, and resources for academic planning and research. It provides a conducive environment for faculty to prepare lessons, hold informal meetings, and engage in discussions that contribute to the overall development of the academic community.
